PREPARING FOR THE DAY.

Appeinting Marshals and Arresting Fraudulent Voters. New York, November 3.—It is said that Pinkerton's detectives have reported to the United States authorities that there are between 200 and 300 illegal registrations at Coney island. In Brooklyn Supervisor-in-Chief Allen and the United States Assistant District Attorney Angell are going over the registry lists. About 5,000 warrants are said to have been ued for cases of illegal registration, includ-about fifty marines in the barracks. It mid that according to the statute they are outside of the city, and, therefore, have no right to register. Judge Moore, in Kings county court of sessions to-day, charged the grand jury that there would probably be some election frauds brought before them for con-wall street presented a very animated ap-pearance to-day, and the excitement ran high. The streets in the vicinity of the exchanges were drowded with members of various boards discussing politics, and at intervals cheers would be given for Blaine and then for Cleve-land. Considerable money was wagered on the result.

Knowledge was obtained to day by the authorities in this city to the effect that fifty men were registered from a single house in West Twenty-eighth street, in which not one of them resided. The detectives were this afternoon placed in possession of about a dozen bench warrants, some of which they expect to execute during the day. The indications are that a very large number of arrests will be made to-morrow.

AN ENGLISH OPINION

On the Result of the Day in the American Election

LONDON, November 3.-The Times this morning devotes a leader to the political contest in America the course of which it says: "Although the Tumbers polled to-mortow will probably those polled at any previous nevertheless it would not be contest, nevertheless it would not be mash to say that the vast majority of Americans regard the issue with indifference. Foreigners have still less occasion to feet keen interest. The campaign has been almost excutsively managed by experienced and professional politicians. To them slone the result will bring exultation or disappointment. The most satisfactory features of the whole campaign is the failure of all attempts to revive for pa ty purposes the sectional jeatousies of north and south. Mr. Blaine's recent inflammatory speeches in the west will not really benefit alls cause.

The address was sent yesterday to the chairmen of the address was sent yesterday to the chairmen of the democratic and republican state committees, with a hote asking them to attach their signatures to it. James Galla gher, chairman of the democratic state committee, promptly returned the address with his signature affixed. This afternoon a letter from Lynde Harrison, chairman of the republican state committee, was received. In it he refused to sign the address, alleging as one of his reasons that it is not the business of a chairman of a party organ fraction to issue such a "general proclamation."

BUFFALO, November 3.—The combination boards hate opened for business here. On the state, Circland for president and Lockwood for congress brought $28, against litate and Farquhar at $12. On othe states the only bets made were on Connecticnt which was $8 democratic to $4 republican. On the county the republican ticket brought $11 against $25 for the democratic ticket. THE LAREAUVILLE RIOT.

How the Riot Originated—The Stampede of Frightened Blacks.

New Orleans, November 3.—A special to the Picayune from New Iberia says: About 200 re-publicans, principally negroes, entered Lareauville a little after one o'clock Saturday a'ternoon cheering in the wildest manner and using profans and obscene language in the greatest profusion The crowd was headed by ex-Sheriff Viator, and they abused the democratic candidate in the vilest terms. The most reliable and, impartial witnesses agree that a few of the citizens of Lavreauville, not over fifteen. led by Joe Gildaux, met this crowd of Kelloggites, and remoustrated with them, when some unknown party fired on Gildaux. The sessull was very unexpected on the part of the democrate, and before they could rally Gilfaux and Captain Bell had failen. The latters revolver was taken from his body, it had not been discharged. As soon as the shooting commenced there was the greatest confusion, and the negroes scattered in every direction. It is very probable that many of the balls of the Kelloggites found victims in their own ranks. When the negroes stampeded they left their wounded of care for themselves. The firing was quite general, and many were wounded and some killed who were not armed. Eight horses were killed at the scene of the fight and one was found dead an mile away. Some of the wounded negroes started to run, deserting their horses and ran until they fell from exhaustion. It is reported that some of them ran into the bayou, where they were Growned; others reached the opposite shore and continued their flight. The panic among the negroes were terrible. They had been told so many wild stories about the democrate that they verily believed the day of doom had come. The finding of the failen negroes at some distance from the battle field caused the rumor that the negroes had beau followed and shot cown wherever found. It is positively stated by the participants that this is lalse. THE RAGE OF THE PEOPLE. A special to the States gives the number of citizens of Lareanville who went out to meet the republicans and ask them to desist, at seventeen.
Louis Browne and Louis Freelot, colored republicans, were among the killed. The additional wounded are St. Clair Dugas and A. F. Dugas, democrats. The engagement lasted only four minutes, but in that time over 1,000 shots were fired. The negroes, as soon as they realized that there was really a fight and that the democrats were making a stand, fied in all directions, laaving their hats, shoes, horses and everything. Many of them received fatal shots on the field, an a great distance, and died in out of the way places. Their bodies are being found now in the fields and woods. Between fifty and sixty of them rushed into the bayou Teche, where some sank from their wounds and exhaustion and were drowned in the confusion and struggle, but many reached the other side, and continued their wild flight. There was reported as found dead in a fie d this side of the bayou, one man who made his way five miles below here and died. The excitement at Lareauville was terrible. When the smoke cleared away and the citizens saw two of the noblest men of Franze Foint lying dead upon the field; their rage was terrible. The leaders of the republican had exhausted their ammunition and retreated into a house near by, where they asked for quarter. Couriers had been dispatched to New Iberia, and a detachment of the Iheria Guards were sent to receive the prisoners. publicans and ask them to desist, at seventeen.

KELLOGG GONE TO THE SCENE. New Obleans, November 3.-Governor Kellogg losed his canvass last night and left for Iberia closed his convass last night and left for Theria parish, the scene of the late troubles.

A dispatch from New Iberia says it is wonderful how the leading republicans managed to ercape, many of them having several builet holes through their clothing. The following are the names of the prisoners now in the Parish prison here as participants in the Larcauville riot: Judge Fontelieu, Alph Fontelieu, Eugene Denterive, Alphonee Magueze, Abe Pailet, Alphonee Magueze, Abe Pailet, Dorsey Dawson, Eng. Conway, Toutant Bienvienne, Alf Genzalin, Deco Walker, colored, and T. B. Tabeux, of St. Mary. The preliminary examination of the prisoners was not had to day, as was expected, owing to the absence of the district attorney. Consequently the prisoners will have to remain in prison until after the election.

No Marshals in St. Louis. Sr. Louis, November 3 .- In the matter of the appointment of deputy United States mar special duty at the polls to-morrow, Judge Treat, in the United States district court, state it to the United States marshal, Cougins, this afternoon, that as no condition of things existed here justifying the appointment of depaties, he would not sign a warrant for their pay. Marshal Cougins, not being willing to assume the liability personally, thereupon cancelled his appointments, and there will be no marshals on duty to-morgow. The board of police commissioners, in view of this state of affairs, has concluded not to appoint special policemen. The election here will, therefore, proceed as under ordinary circumstances, and all ground for apprehension of trouble at the polls is removed. pecial duty at the polls to-morrow, Judge Treat,

Boston, November 3.-General Butler address

Boston, November 3.—General Butler addressed a large audience in the Music hall at Natick this afternoon. He was warmly received. He said in his speech: "They say on the other side that I have had noney paid me to work in the Interest of Blaine and the republican ticket. Pardon me. If I had remained at my profession I could have cerued, at the lowest estimate, $5 for the $1 that my enemies say I have received. The general repeated his well known tariff views, and the balance of his address was substantially as delivered.

The Contest in Florida,

PENSACOLA, November 3 .-- The contest in this ate will be more hotly contested than ever betore. Both sides claim the state, but the demoore. Eoth fides claim the state, but the demo-crats have the best foundation. The vote will be large. Dougherty, democrat, claims that he will defeat Bisbee, the present republican incumbent, for congress by 5,000 majority. Davidson, demo-crat, is conceded re-elected over Locke, republican. Perry, for governor, will run considerably ahead of Cleveland. There is a prospect of rain to-morrow in the western part of the state.

"Colonizing" in New Jersey. TRENTON, N. J., November 3.-Twenty five men charged with being repeaters, were arrested here charged with being repeaters, were arrested here this morning and sent to the county just for five days. The country for miles around is flooded with tramps to-day, and each party bitterly charges the other with efforts to colonize voters. A num-ber of false registrations have been discovered. Governor Abbet has telegraphed Prosecutor Beast-ley to remain in his office all day to-morrow.

"Rum, Romanism and Lebellion." NEW YORK, November 3.—To a member of the republican state committee, Mr. Blaine, this morning, before leaving the city, expressed the opin-son that the remarks of Dr. Burchard upon "Rua, Romanism and Reballion," would not cost the national ticket more than 500 votes. WLAINE IN BOSTON.

It was about 5:20 o'clock when the train reached Boston. In the depot there was avery large crowd, who cheered loudly for Blaine. There was also some cheering for Cleveland from one portion of the crowd, and as the carriage containing Blaine, Lieutenant-Governor Ames and Henry Cabot Lodge moved off a number of small boys ran after it and hissed, while large crowds of people in the streets cheered. THE BIG DINING

At the dinner given to Mr. Blaine this evening at the Hotel Brunswick there were more than two hundred guests. It was about eight o'clock when Mr. Lodge, who presided, called the company to order. He said that as Mr. Blaine was to review the great torchlight procession, view the great torchlight procession, there would not be any general speaking, but he knew those present would be greatly disappointed if they did not hear from the dis-tinguished guest of the evening. When Mr. Blaine rose to respond he was heartily cheered. When order was restored he said:

Elaine rose to respond he was heartily cheered. When order was restored he said:

Mr. Chairman and Gentlemen: For reasons which I need not stop to detail, a reception of this character in the city of Boston at the close of the national campaign is peculiarly grateful to me, and I thank Mr. Lodge for giving me the opportunity to thank you. (Applause.) It is too late to argue or even to state the great issues involved in the canvass which closes to-night, but I am sure that these issues constitute a difference between the parties so broad and so deep that their decision, one way or the other, will affect for weal or for wee the history of the United States for many years to come [Applause]. I am sure that the great constitutional amendments which have grown out of the civil struggle, and which have, in so many respects I might say, changed the very frame work of our government, have been made by the republican party, and are now infits keeping, and as I have irrequently said elsewhere I here now repeat, that to transfer the political power of the country to the democratic party at this time would by no means be one of those ordinary transfers of government from one party to another, which the gray haired men within my view witnessed many years ago. It would not be merely a case of one government from one party to another, which the gray haired men within my view witnessed many years ago. It would not be merely a case of one party going out and another coming in. It would be rather the reversal and overturning of the great organic changes in the government, of the great industrial systems, and at would be a transfer of the sovereignty of the country far more vital ard far reaching than any of the ordinary changes of dynasty which occur in those European governments of different form from ours. I close this convass, in which I have had some active, participation, with the profound conviction that as intelligent as the voters of the junited States are, I am certainly address ig some of the most intelligent of them—that intelligent as the mass of voters are, accustomed as they are to give heed to the weight and tendency of questions to be decided, the people of the United States have not yet neasured, nor as I believe, yet fully comprehended what it would mean to transfer this government to the absolute control of the southern states of this wind and a large and now tant to give ded, the people of the United states have not yet in essured, nor as I believe, yet fully comprehended what it would mean to transfer this government to the absolute control of the southern states of this union. Nor do I here and now stop to give my own idea of what such change would mean, it were out of place. I should refrain for the additional reason that anything I might say would be too late to influence the popular judgment in that direction, and for the third reason that in so far as my own voice could reach and influence the just judgment of the people of the United States. I have exerted it very freely. I have never oftered any apolegy or explanation for taking what some of my closest friends regarded as an extraordinary step in going before the people somewhat more freely and extendedly than has been the habit of those chosen as presidential candidates of the great parties. But I will say now that I did it—shal I desire to put this on record—I did it because I thought that the peculiar character of the canvass was my personal justification for doing it. I am a profound believer in popular government, and I know no reason why I should not face the American people. I did it, too, for the steerific reason, that I believed there was danger of the great leading questions which related to the industrial and protective systems of America being partially, or perhaps wholly, excluded from that consideration by the people which its merits deserved, and entrusted as I was with the great function of representing you, and all the members of the republican Jarty, I felt that I would, in an especial degree, myself obtain a hearing, I have returned somewhat weary, somewhat broken in voice, as your ears have already perceived, but I have returned somewhat weary, somewhat broken in voice, as your ears have already perceived, but I have returned with even a more profound belief than I had in the judgment, ferom hat consideration people, for I have, in my entire canvass, unconsciously and completely lost sight of myself, and far grander and far more endearing issue which, for the time, I was submitting to the pop-Which, for the time, I was substituting to the popular judgment. [Cheers]

From the dinner table Mr. Blaine went to view the torchlight procession, which he did from the balcony of the hotel. To-morrow he will go home to Augusta, leaving Boston at BEAUFORT, S. C., November 3.—[Special.]—Serious collisions between the whites and the turbu ent, misguided negroes may occur in some sec publicans have held secret meetings. Trouble is brewing. Smalls is here, and a number of his followers are with him. Throughout the county the blacks are generally armed. Smalls's advantable show a very hostile attitude toward the friends and supporters of Colonel Elli tt. It is now admitted that the nomination of Colonel Elliott was a mistake. It has stirred up the worst feelings of the negro race. There is no showing, whatever, or the gallant Elliott. He is a noble man, and every white person of any repute in the "black district" would be delighted to see him elected, but this now seems impossible. The black vote is too overwhelming. It will crush out the few white votes that will be cast. Of course, every what voter in the district will cast his ballot for Elliott, but what will they amount to? Colonel Elliott has made a brava fight and deserved success. Smalls is already gloating over the discomfiture of his rival. It is to be hoped that no riot will precipitated by the inflamed negroes. should a conflict occur there is no telling where it wouldend. rewing. Smalls is here, and a number of his fol-

A Fourteenth Amendment Decision-A

Washington, November 3.—A decision was ren ered by the supreme court of the United States this afternoon in another of the long series of cases which have arisen out of the adoption of the fourteenth and fifteenth amendments to the constitu-tion. The present case, which is that of John Elk, plaintiff in error, against Charles Wilkins, and which came from the district of Nebraska, and is a suit brought by an Indian against the register of one of the wards of Omaha, for the refusal to reg-ster him as a qualified voter therein. The quesster bim as a qualified voter therein. The questions presented are whether the plaintiff in error is a citizen of the United States, and, whether he is been desired any right guaranteed him by the fitteenth emendment to the federal constitution. This court in a long and elaborate opinion by McJustice Gray, holds first, that an Indian who is hern a member of one of the Indian tribes within the United States, which still exists and is recegnized as a tribe by the government, and who has voluntarily separated himself, from his tribe, and taken up his residence among the white crizens of the state but who has not been naturalized or taxed, or recognized as a stitzen either by the United States or by the state, is not a citizen of the United States withing the meaning of the first section of the four-teenth amendment.

th amendment, cone, that the plaintiff in error, not being a cone, that the plaintiff in error, not being a cen of the United States, under the fourteenth adment, has been deprived of no right seed by the fitteenth amendment, and caunot mitain this action. The judgment of the circuit is affirmed.

melutain this action. The judgment of the check court is affirmed.

Justice Harlan read a long dissenting opinion in behalf of Justice Woods and himself.

A decision was also rendered by the court today in the important patent case of Benjamin Butterworth, commissioner of patents, plaintiff in error, against the United States, ex rel Richard H. Dai and others, in error to the supreme court of the District of Columbia. This was a suit brought for the purpose of obtaining writs of mandamus to compel the commissioner to issue a natent in accordance with his own decision, not damus to compel the commissioner to issue a cent in accordance with his own decision, notbetanding the fact that the decision been overruled and reversed upon apis by the secretary of the interior. The question cuted here is whether any right of appeal exin patent cases from the decision of the comsioner to the secretary of the interior. This int, in along and carefully prepared opinion Justice Matthews, holds that an appeal does lie in patent cases to the secretary of the inor; that the commissioner of patents has the function of the commissioner of patents has the function of the commissioner of the comtions of the commissioner of the com crior; must the commissioner of patents has the xclusive right to decide for himself whether or out the patent ought to issue, and the secretary of he interior has no authority to review such decision of the commissioners. The party aggrieved as a statulary remedy, but that remedy is not in appeal to the secretary. The judgment of he superme court of the district awarding the viri of mendamns is affirmed.

A decision was also rendered by the court in the ase of Joseph Cooper, plaintiff in error, against he city of New Oriens. The question presented y this case is whether the licenso tax imposed by he city in accordance with the city in accordance with the tate law, upon steam propellers plying setween New Oriens and points on the Gull coast, as "regulation of commerce among the states," and therefore forbidden by article I and section B of the federal constitution. The supreme court of couisiana decided that it was not. This court recrease that decision and holds that such tax on osstwise steamers is a regulation of commerce mong the states, and is therefore unconstitution-land void.

The Democratic Managers Certain That the State Will Go Democratic—The Incendiary Speeches of Smalls in the Black Dis rict—Reports
From all Parts of the State.

CHARLESTON, November 3 .- [Special.]-In this city there is a feeling of suppressed excitement, of neasness and fear concerning the morrow. Runors are afloat that in sections of this and adjoing counties the negroes held secret meetings tonight, to map out to-morrow's programme. They determined to go to the polls fully armed at day break, and stay there 'till all the ballots are Marshal Taumey has appointed deputys for this city and for every other town in the state. This is in violation of plaw. The authority of these men will not be respected, and should they seek to interfere with the election officers they will be promptly arrested and cast into prison. The conlict of authority between these hirelings of the overnment and the regularly and legally appointed election managers will result in collisions and bloodshed may follow. Should any outbreaks occur, the consequences will be on the heads of the infam ous republican leaders.

SIGNS OF TROUBLE.

The Negroes Organized and Armed for • Fight. COLUMBIA, S. C., November 3-[Special.]-At a late hour to-night, your correspondent visited the democratic headquarters, and ascertained that a umber of exceedingly encouraging telegrams had been received from various parts of the state. It is stated that the full democratic vote will be polled in every county. It is asserted that the negroes in large numbers in several counties will east an open ballot for the democratic nominees. t is estimated that fifteen thousand negroes will refuse to vote at all. Senator Hampton, Gov. ernor Thompson, General Israel and other prominent democratic leaders are certain that the state sall right for Cleveland. The majority is put at sixteen thousand. In Columbia everything is quiet to night, and no trouble is apprehended toerrow. It is generally believed that the election will pass off quietly.

AN INCENDIARY SPEECH.

malls Urging the Negroes to Riotous Deeds in South Carolina.

CHARLESTON, S. C., November 3.—[Special.]— Great indignation exists among the white people of Berkeley, Colleton and Beaufort counties on ecount of the infamous preceedings of Smalls, Paul, Whipper and other radical leaders. Smalls has been making the most outrageous speeches eyer heard in South Carolina. Saturday, he delivered a most incendiary harangue to a crowd of negroes in Colleton county. Only a few white ecople were present. Smalls advised every black nan in the "black district" to go to the polls at daybreak armed with a pistol and a razor and to demand his rights or make the whites bite the dust. "If you are interfered with," he is reported to have said "You must show the d—d boarbons that you can assert your rights. You must teach them that you are educated up to the point of casting a ballot for the man of your choice, and shooting as you vote it you are bothered. Show them that you can cut, too. Yos, now is the time to regain power. Even if the valleys of old Colleton flows with the white man's blood, you must elect me and. Blaine. Before Elliott is allowed to beat me you must cut him down. We are strong and can't be intimidated by the cut throats of the democracy. You know your duty. Now, I want you to do it." Whipper, a coal black lawyer of Beaufort, made as speech equally as damnable as the above. He told his black listeners to go home shouday night and play for success; then to get out their guns and play for success; then to get out their guns and play for success; then to get out their guns and play for success; then to get out their guns and play for success; then to get out their guns and play in the work of the democracy. You will be a success to power and ball," said he, "for we must make every shot tell. If you kill a white man nothing can ever be done with you, for I will see that your case goes to the United States court, and Melton and I will get you of?" He went on to advise the negroes to go to the polls before day, to take possession of them "Reise hell, and then the country will say that the election in South Carolina was illegal, and the vote of this state will go for Blaine and togan. We have no state ticket in the field, but the presidential electors and we must elect them or raise the devil."

W. A Paul, the negro county chairman of Colleton, made a long bitter speech, in which he counselled the negroes to procure a pistol and a razor and a Blaine ticket. If the latter is refused by the d—d bourbons present them with the former. He closed his speech by yelling: "Kill the d—d white man whenever opportunity offers. I told you thi demand his rights or make the whites bite the dust. "If you are inter-authorities.

I have calmly canvassed the situation and have come to the conclusion that no serious trouble will occur to-morrow.

A Lively Day in Edgefield. TRENTON, S. C., November 3.—[Special.]—The election to morrow in Edgefield county promises to be a lively affair. The democrats are vigilant and well organized. The negroes are likewise on the alert and well organized. The whites have registered almost to a man. The blacks have not registered generally. About twenty-two nundred of the negroes that registered have either sold or lost their certificates. The infamous Paris Simpkins delivered a wild and threatening speech today. He told the blacks to vote for the Blaine electors and see that their votes are counted, or kill the white managers of election. Mr. B. W. Bettis, chairman of the county democracy, informs me that the county will undoubtedly go democratic by an overwhelming vote. He apprehends no disturbances. No liquer will be sold anywhere in Edgefield county to-morrow. to be a lively affair. The democrats are vigilant

Cleveland Will Carry the State. CHESTER, S. C., November 3 .- [Special.]-The Hon. John J. Hemphill, congressman from this district, says that he feels confident that the redistrict, says that he feels confident that the republicans in this county will not vote generally to-morrow. There is a large white registered majority and the full democratic vote will be cast. There is no doubt, whatever, he says that Cleve land will carry the state. He does not apprehend any disturbances of a general character. There may be a few outbreaks in the lower counties, but nothing serious will occur. He sees no reason why any race collisions should happen. In this town the democrats have prepared to achieve a decisive victory. To night there is no excitement in Chester. I think the election in Chester county will be quiet to-morrow.

John Robinson's Contribution. COLUMBIA, S. C., November 3 .- [Special.]-Old

John Robinson is a stalwart democrat. He is a John Robinson is a stalwart democrat. He is a liberal one, too. Besides making a handsome gift toward defraying the campaign expenses, he helped the party in Columbia last Friday in a curious way. He gave out that every negro who presented at the circus door a registration certificate instead of a ticket, would be admitted free upon giving up to the doorkeeper such certificate. One hundred and fifty five negroes thus parted with their elective franchise, for not one of them can vote to-morrow. Old John Robinson has tendered valuable service to the county in getting rid of these votes.

OBANGEBURG, S. C., November 3 .- [Special.]

General J. F. Izlar, chairman of the state democratic executive committee, reached Orangeburg to-night. He was seen by your correspondent. "I came bome to vote." he said, in answer to my buestion. He expresses the hope that Cleveland will be elected, and is confident that South Carolina wil, go democratic by fitteen thousand majority. In this county all is quiet to-night. All Quiet in Georgetown, the republican vote will be very heavy. The whites will cast their full vote. It is feared that the republicans will carry this county. The vote for the Blaine electors is certain to be immense. It is thought here that Taft and Small will defeat Dibble and Elliott. There seems to be no reasonable ground for apprehending a collision between the whites and blacks to morrow at the polls. A very good feeling exists in this county between the two races, and there ought not to be any conflicts between them. The campaign orators have attempted to stir up strife.

Greenville Will Vote All Right.

GREENVILLE, S. C., November 3.—[Special.]—This good old reliable democratic county will do its duty to-morrow. The white vote will be full; the negro and republican vote very light. The county will give a round democratic majority. There is no danger whatever of any collisions between the whites and blacks in this county to-morrow. The election promises to be very quiet. Some of our election promises to be very quiet. business houses will close for the day LANCASTER, S. C., November 3. -[Special.]-The democrats are well organized in this county and will vote their whole strength to-morrow. No trouble between the two races is feared. The ne-groes show little or no interest in the approaching lection.

SPARTANBURG, S. C., November 3.-[Special.]tion. The democrats will sweep the county. South Carolina is safe for Cleveland and Hendricks. No excitement here in view of to-morrow's elec-

Have Lost Their Certificates, CHERAW, S. C., November 3,—[Special.]—No difficulties between the whites and blacks are expected in this place to-morrow. Indeed, very few of the colored voters are going to the polls. Not many have preserved their certificates of registra-tion and a good many that have intend to vote the democratic ticket. The white vote will be tolerably heavy.

The Negroes Quiet in Winnsboro Winnsboro, S. C., November 3.—[Special.]—To-morrow the democrats of Fairfield county will roll up a towering majority for Cleveland and Hendricks. Thousands of the negroes will not take the trouble to go to the polls and vote. No danger of any rows. Negroes Who Will Not Vote.

DARLINGTON, S.C., November 3.—[Special.]—This county is thoroughly democratic, and the party is in good fighting condition. To-morrow a full white vote will be cast. Hundreds of negroe s say they won't vote. No riots are apprehended. The Republicans Demoralized: SUMTER, S. C., November 3 .- [Special. |- The de-ocracy in this county is in good fighting trim for -morrow. The republicans are thoroughly demoralized. A full white vote will be polled. No collisions between the two races are feared. This county will roll up a handsome majority for the Cleveland electors.

ENGLAND IN EGYPT. The Rumored Fall of Khartoum Under Dis-

LONDON, November 3 .- The Times considers the news reported from Cairo to the Paris Morning News to the effect that Khartoum had fallen into had been taken prisoner, extremely doubtful. This view, it thinks, is especially reasonable in the absence of advices on the subject from General Wolseley. The Times traces the report to the Bosphone Egyptian, a dubious French organ, which may have given the Europeanized version of an Arab rumor which has recently gained some currency in Cairo. A dispatch reports that a large force of rebels was at Berber, and that robels had possession of the wells on the caravan route between Debbeh and Khartoum. After the crops are barvested the Madhi's forces will be largely increased.

In the house of lords this afternoon, Lord Granville said that the government had no reason to believe that the report of the fall of Khartoum and the capture of Gordon was true. The house adjourned till Thursday.

The marquis of Salisbury, conservative leader, referring to the instructions given by the government to General Gordon, said that it appeared to be the intention of the government to abandon all the Egyptian garrisons in the Soudan. Lord Granville denied that the government had any intention to abandon Khartoun, but he admitted that it had no intention to prolong the campaign in order to rescue the Sennar or other garrisons. had been taken prisoner, extremely doubtful.

He was remanded to jail for trial. Evidence was produced showing that he wrote a letter to the headquarters of the fe lans in Paris, containing an account of the receipt of eash for fenian purposes, and an account of the avengers' expenses. Among the avengers the names of Joe Mullett and Patrick Malloy appeared. The letter likewise detailed the quantity of arms belonging to the various fenian centers in Iroland, and the number of men composing them. At Kilkeany it said there were 332 members, at Dublin 650 and at Lotth 583.

English Policy in Africa. LONDON, November 3.-A delegation of south African merchants to-day waited upon Earl Derby secretary of state for the colonies, for a consulta secretary of state for the colonies, for a consultation in reference to affairs in their country. The interview resulted in Earl Derby informing the deputation that the English government had not the remotest intention of abandoning any portion of her south African possessions, but at the same time the government would not extend the limit of her control beyond the present boundaries.
Earl Derby also informed the deputation that the government refuses to entertain their appeal for the annexation of Zululand, or to establish a protectorate over the Zulu country.

He has a peculiar free-and-easy manner of charging a jury, just like he was engaged in private conversation with them, that is very rare, while his ability is equal to the requirements of any position he might be called upon to fill. He got on with the business of the court rapidly and smoothly, giving altogether the most universal satisfaction to all concerned in the proceedings of the court.

In a speech last week Colonel Weir Boyd, a representative elect from Lumpkin, expressed his convictions in favor of the continuance of the rail-road commission, in opposition to the renewal of the convict lease, and in favor of a general "local option" law—that is allowing a majority of the voters in any district to control the liquor traffic Wrightsville Recorder: Strenuous efforts are being made to abolish the vending of spirituous liquors in nearly every county in which it is now sold. Persevere, friends, and may success crown your efforts. No liquor is sold in our county, and we can rafely say, that no county in the state is making more rapid strides in the development of its resources. Let every county emulate the example of noble old Johnson, and the people will scon have great cause for rejoicing. Let the demon, intemperance, be driven from our land, and peace, prosperity and happiness will most assuredly take its place.

Brother R—a marvil in figures, but somewhat difficult in addition.

GREENVILLE, November 1st.—Editors Constitution: In your paper 24th ult. Brother R, states "that on the day that Captain Heary Persons spoke in Greenville there was only fifty men present, and half of them ardent supporters of H. R. Harris. His memory being retreshed by a card from the undersigned in Constitution '28th ult. he is honest enough to say, "instead of fifty, there were seventy-eight present, forty one of whom seventy-eight in all."

By what process of addition, Brother R., do you make 41 and 36 78? Or is it that you count yourself equal to two for Harris? Now, houest (for once), wasn't you so badly frightened when you wrote it, at first, fifty that you meant one hundred and fifty, and, secondly, when you tried it again and made 41 and 36 78, wasn't you just a little off —that is, sufficing with what is technically called Barris Mania. ## Almost a Miracle

A REMARKABLE STORY.

A few days ago a gentleman of high standing in Atlanta met Dr. J. Bradfield on the street, and related the following, in which all ladies are deeply interested:

"For the past cighteen months my wife has been sn invalid, caused from womb trouble, cessation of merses, etc., and I have tried everything I could hear of in the way of medicine, and have had several of our best physicians attending her, to one of whom, (calling him by name) I paid one hundred and sixty-three dollars. Instead of improving or getting any relief, she gradually grew worse, and I had almost given up hope, and really did not believe she would ever get up from an invalid's bed; but a friend of mine who knew of the case suggested the use of Bradfield's Female Regulator, and although he stated that he knew of a similar case being cured by it, and indorsed it highly him self. I was so discouraged I did not believed it would do her any good; but as a last resort bought a large bottle of it and she began taking it and from the very first a marked change took place. She begun to improve rapidity, her appetite returned, her whole system was built up, and to-day shis as well and sound as ever in her life, and I am under life-long obligations to you and your remains.

We Claim and Can Prove Beyond a Doubt, By the higest and most undoubted testimony: That this Remedy will cure leucorrhoæ or whites That this Remedy will restore the menstrual fund

That this remedy will relieve painful menstrua-

That this remedy will build up the system as That this remedy will cure all female disorders.

"CHANGE OF LIFE." If taken during this period, so critical, it stands without a rival. Send forour treatise on Woman. Mailed free to any address.

BARRY'S

The gam of female remedies, specially adapted to troubles of pregnancy, used during the last two months of pregnancy it relieves all sense of tights ness and weight, so annoying to the cendition.

Luxomni relieves cramps, false pains, and promotes rest and comfort at night; it greatly ameliorates the pangs of child birth, shortens labor, prevents after pains, and facilitates recovery.

For disordered and painful menstruation it has no equal, and is a superior remedy for neuralizies, convulsions, and other troubles connected with the uterine and ovarium diseases.

Luxomni is no liquid preparation, but a combination of vegetable plants from which simple tea is made, and is without doubt the gem of female remedies. Price, $1.00 per package, I your druggist has not the preparation, address the RARRY MANUFACTURING CO.

A long, lank, lean and chronic Anti-Potash Room met the new, fat and saucy Atlanta Big Bold Boom, on a hot, sultry day. "Who are you?" asked the B. B. B. Boom. "I am the old Anti-Potash Boom," was the sad reply, as the perspiration rolled down, and it leaned heavily on the B. B. B. Boom for sup-port.

sad reply, as the perspiration rolled down, and it leaned heavily on the B. B., B. Boom for support.

"Don't lean on me?" said the B. B. B. Boom.
"I may look strong, but I am quite young—only 14 months old, and am growing rapidly, and am mighty weak in the knees. I am doing the work which you failed to do, although you are 50 years old. You are old, and tough, and rich, and don't require a support. But what causes you to look so thin of late?"

"Well, I hardly know," replied the Antt Potash Boom. "My physician tells me that my abilities have been over-rated, and that while trying to whip out all opposition by boast and brag, that I have only proven my inability to cope with what he calls my superiors. Old age is also creeping on me—baving fought nearly 50 years before anyone knew I was living—and now I am unable to perform feats that others are doing. I am collapsed: my friends have turned against me and call me names, and oh Lordy how sick I become at the very sight of B. B. B. Hold my head while I die."

Lordy how sick I become at the very sight of B. B. B. Hold my head while I die.?!

BLOOD BALM COMPANY:

I take pleasure in making the following statement. For 4 years I have been a great sufferer from Malarial Blood Poison, and for six months have had Rheumatism to such an extent that I was forced to use crutches a portion of the time, and could not raise my left arm to my head. I used all the leading Blood remedies of the day, besides the attention of several first class physicians, all without benefit.

I became quite feeble and emaclated, having very little appetite and poor digestion.

Calling at your office one day, I secured two bottles of B. B. B., and commenced its use at once, and before one bottle had been used, I felt a most wonderful change. Two bottles have given me entire relief. Rheumatism relieved and can use my arm as good as ever; cured the neuralgia in my head and all malarial poison is being rapidly relieved, and I feel better than I have for six years. To tell you the truth I have never used such a wonderful medicine in all my life, as the effects have been magical. It has acted as a splendid tonic, gave a good appetite and imparted quiet slumbers. I cheerfully commend it as a quick remedy.

ATLANTA, NOVEMBER , 1884.

A WORD OF CAUTION AND OF WARNING. Weunderstand that the republicans who attended the meeting at the custom house last night, were notified that they had the right to vote whether they were registered or not and urged to insist on this right. The negroes of the city generally believe that non-registration will not effect the right to vote. Such notification is false, and such ad-

No man, white or black, who is not registered, has the right to vote. Any man who votes without being registered is guilty of illegal voting. Any manager who knowingly accepts such a vote is liable to punishment

The registration law is a state law. It is a good law. "It is a live law. It is a constitutional law. And it is a law that must be respected and obeyed. That's about all there NAMING THE PRESIDENT TO-NIGHT. The Constitution feels justified in promising the public that it will have the result of the presidential election before to-morrow morning. This is a feat not yet accomplished by any journal in this country.

It may be that we cannot do it. Our arrange ments are so perfect that we believe we will have the definite result from every doubtful state

If this feat is possible, we will do it. And is we leave it half accomplished, our readers mu rest satisfied that no other paper in America has finished it

TO-DAY'S ELECTION.

Grover Cleveland is elected president of the United States, this morning, by every sign that enable men to make up estimates on ballots not actually cast.

The man of observation, who has bet against Cleveland's election in the past ten days, has simply bet on the power of money to reverse the popular will. He has bet that unlimited cash, scattered at the polls, will outweigh conscience, patriotism and bonor.

No discussion of the situation, omitting the money of the republicans, can come to anything else than democratic success. Every force that is powerful in elections-every element that is invincible at the polls-every argument that touches the public sense of honor or policy-all of these are with Cleve-

Against all this, the republicans can put but one thing. That is money. It is on this that they rely. With their millions, wrung from the reluctant hands of nearly 200,000 officeholders, they hope once more to stifle the conscience of the people and buy the floating vote in the doubtful states.

We do not believe they can do it. The tidal wave for Cleveland and Hendricks has risen too high to be stilled by the corruptionists. It will sweep them out of power, if we do not mistake the signs.

In any event it is the most desperate struggle this republic has ever endured. If Blaine is elected it will demonstrate that the presidency of this republic is purchasable, and that the tremendous energy of the republican revelt, and the awakening of the public conscience amounts to nothing when compared to the half million dollars in cash drawn by William Walter Phelps out of the New York banks last night for the purpose of buying the electoral votes of New Jersey. Our hopes are strong that the will of the people will prevail in spite of the infamous and deperate #### methods of the thieves in the last ditch. IN THE HANDS OF THE PEOPLE.

The result to-daywill settle several matters that have been hotly contested. It will settle, for sometime to come, the question whether the people of the country are willing to have the government administered by man who has been connected in a disreputable way with every piece of jobbery that ventured to show its head while he was a member of congress. It will settle the question whether the voters of the country are willing to trust a dishonest man who has been repudiated by the respectable and selfrespecting men of his own party. It will settle the question whether the white house is to be the destination of every politician who displays the tact and talent of an artful dodger, or the versatility of an accomplished

If Brother Blaine is made president to-day, the result will demonstrate that public opinion is not a bar to the ambition of sharpers and corruptionists. We are confident that he will be defeated, and this confidence will abide with us until the returns come to hand with a different story. If there is any advantage in honesty and integrity that adrantage is with the democratic party to-day. In any event there is consolation fact, and it is a fact that can too often be brought to the ion of the northern people, namely: he south cannot be worsted by the electhat the south cannot be worsted by the elec-tion of a jobber and corruptionist to the office of president. We have no more at stake in, and probably not as much as, the people of the north. If as much, certainly no more. We have been through the mill as it were. Sectionalism no longer interests us.

s only through that party that the government can be purified. Saying nothing of the principles on which democracy is based, we are democrats because the democratic party is the only organized opponent of political corruption in this country, and if the administration of affairs is to be redeemed, the redemption can come only through the change that a democratic victory would give.

This much by way of interlude. We are of the opinion that the wires which connect the office of THE CONSTITUTION with all the news centers of the country will to-night convev to our guests and to our readers intelligence of a democratic victory.

THE DOUBTFUL STATES. The canvass is closed; the casting of the ballots-and the count-are all that are left, and we shall soon know how close the estimates were to the truth. We know that the republicans will have to work hard to-day for nearly every electoral vote they seek. Except in Vermont not a vote is conceded to them. Vermont casts four electoral votes. and the republicans must expend their strength, patronage, money and skill to get 197 more. The democrats on the other hand start with 153 votes that will not lower the funds of the national committee so much as a single dollar. But the other 48 votes will not come easily. There is, however, the consolation that the party in power has 197 contested votes to get, while the party out of power will have to struggle for

The chief contest is for New York with he 6 electoral votes. Here again the advantage is on the side of the democrats. The state is naturally democratic, and the democrats are this year reinforced by an army of independents, a corps of stalwarts, and indirectly by a scattering but numerous force of proibitionists. Can factional troubles in one or two towns, or the fading Butler movement, overcome such gains? No, indeed.

And then there is Connecticut. It gave Tilden a plurality of 2,900, and Governor Waller carried it two years ago by a plurality of 4,161. Only once since 1848 has the utmeg state differed with New York on election day. As New York goes so goes Connecticut, because they are constituted very much alike. This year they are probably more independents to the acre in Connecticut than in New York. New Haven is an independent center, and there is scarcely a town in the state that does not contain a considerable number of them. The prohibi tionists are also very aggressive. Altogether it is safe to assume that Connecticut will vote as New York does, in accordance with a cus tom that has been observed almost forty

New Jersey is contested from end to end; and yet it has failed only once since 1844 to give its electoral votes to democratic presidential candidates, and in the exceptional year the democrats supported Horace Greeley, who was not a democrat. We may say then that it has never failed to support the democratic candidate in forty years. It is all moonshine to say that such a state in such a year as this, is doubtful. Last year Governor Abbett carried the state by nearly 7,000 plurality. New Jersey is not a doubtful state. and its electoral votes will be given to Cleveland and Hendricks, regardless of the vote of New York or of any other states.

Indiana is another uniformly democratic state. Tilden and Hendricks carried it by a plurality of 5,515; Dorsey bought the purasable vote in 1880; but in 1882 the democrats swept the state by a plurality of 10,924. It should not be forgotten that Garfield had the help of thousands of Campbellites, who were democrats who will this year vote according to their party predilections. Nor should it be forgotten that there are a good many independents and a great many prohibitionists in the state. If money was not a factor in this campaign Indiana would not be considered a doubtful state, and the chances are that the republicans are not rich enough

Michigan is a state in a transition state. The fusionists carried it in 1882 by a plurality of 4,572; and a similar combination of oppos tion strength has beem made with some prospect of repeating the victory of 1882. The electoral ticket is made up of democrats and greenbackers. The fusion ticket will not, however, be elected unless the prohibition vote is large. The latter have put up a strong state ticket, and have conducted a vigorous campaign. They are well organized in nearly every county of the state-so well that the republicans are not confident of success. The other contested western states are Wisconsin and Illinois. The majority against the republicans in Wisconsin in 1881 was 1,268; and this year there is a widespread defection among the Germans and Scandina vians. Illinois is full of independents, and there are not wanting close observers who place it in the list of doubtful states.

The Pacific slope is by no means "solid" for Blaine. Hancock carried California by a small plurality, and in 1882 the democrats swept it with a plurality of 23,519, and sent a solid democratic delegation to congress. It should be remembered that the state govern ment is in the hands of the democrats, and that there is no state in the union which has a greater dislike of Mr. Blaine's particular friends, the monopolists. Its experience in that direction has been neither pleasant nor profitable. California is not to be counted to-day a sure Blaine state. Neither is Nevada. Hancock carried it by 879 majority, and in 1882 the democrats had a majority of 1,235 in about 12,000 voters all told. It is a state to emigrate from of late, and it is estimated that more republicans have left it since 1882 than

If Butler were out of the canvass there would be sharp contests in both Massachusetts and New Hampshire, with the chances largely in favor of the democrats. As things stand, neither state is conceded to the republicans. New Hampshire is certainly a doubt ful state.

If from this long list of doubtful states-New York, New Jersey, Connecticut, Indiana, Michigan, Wisconsin, Illinois, California, Nevada, Massachusetts and New Hampshire -the democrats cannot, under the leadership of Grover Cleveland, win from James G. Blaine forty-eight electoral votes, they do not deserve success. If, indeed, they have not to-night many electoral votes to spare, the will be great surprise and deep disappointment among the most intelligent and best people of the country.

We call attention once more to the fact that we Prospects of a Quiet Election-No Special have provided a special telegraph operator in THE CONSTITUTION building and detailed a member of our staff to answer any dispatches that are received from THE CONSTITUTION'S readers in any city or town outside of Atlanta. It is our opinion that we will have the result in every doubtfu! state before midnight. We will be prepared to answer dispatches until four o'clock in the morning. It will be necessary in small towns to see the local tele graph operator and induce him to keep his office open as late as the citizens may desire. In many towns purses have been raised for the purpose of paying for telegrams and paying the operator for his extra services, and we have been notified that gentlemen from these towns will be sent to Atlanta for the purpose of forwarding dispatches promptly. We will give these genlemen every possible accommodation and give them seats next to the operator's desk, and access to our bulletins as received, so that all inquiries can be taken promptly and answered at one It was found necessary yesterday to enlarge the immense bulletin placed on the corner of the building opposite THE CONSTITUTION office addition of four feet to each side, making it now thirty-two feet square. This was necessary in order to have the figures of such a size that they can be read by the immense growd that will gather. It is the wish of THE CON TITUTION to accommodate as many people as can get inside the building, with seats and with views of the inside bulletins. But of course there will be thousands who will get the news from the streets. The arrangements for notifying those in the streets are perfect. The camera is placed in fast writers are there for the purpose of bulletinpectators in the street even before it is bulletined

There will be a special wire in the Capital city and the returns will be displayed there also.

TO THE MEMBERS OF THE LEGISLA-TURE.

The members of the legislature are invited to THE CONSTITUTION building to-night to hear the news from the election.

Seats have been provided for the members of the house and senate on the editorial floor, where special bulletins will be displayed.

Members in entering the building will please sk for the elevator, announce themselves "mempers of the legislature," and they will be carried the fourth floor where provision is made for heir comfort.

To EDITOR DANA-Dear Sir: We believe Blaine beaten. We trust you are well.

When a lawyer has a bad case in the lower ourts the best thing to do is to get as far away from the merits of the case as possible. An old awyer says that in such emergencies if the coun sel will plant himself upon some "broad princi le" and inveigle the other side into a controver great advantage is gained. Whenever it is possible onstitutional point should be raised, and forti ed with Cooley, Story and other constitutiona authorities. It is also a good plan to throw out mething about the danger of "impairing the solemn obligation of contracts," and a fling at expost facto malignity has been known to work wonders. Under such conditions the argument, especially when addressed to a justice of the peace, should be broad enough to take it nce to Coke. Brarton and the Year Books. The ustier your authorities, the more respect they will command. In desperate extremities t is a good idea to show he court that the case cannot be decided without ugging in Justinean and the Code Napoleon. The ect of such authorities is often paralyzing. WE hear from Florida that the democrats pro ose to take care of that state. This is as it should be. It sometimes happens that Florida is quite as important state to the rest of the country. Long may the democratic gray moss of Florida wave.

JUDGE TOURGEE is getting into hot water on acount of his abominable book, "An Appeal to Cæsar." It has been shown that his statistics are unreliable, and that his conclusions are erroneous, but he could doubtless have stood all that, as his carpet-bag experience has led him to believe tha a lie well stuck to is as good as the truth. One attack however, is a little too much for his equanimity A New York reviewer calls attention to the fact that the judge in his "Appeal to Casar" appropriated almost bodily the ideas, facts and conclusions set forth last year by Professor E. W. Gillism in an article on the future of the negro in the south. To replies that this book demonstrates the fact that the negroes will have a tremendous maority in the southern states in the next sixteen years, whereas Prof. Gilliam's figures relate to the tatus of the race a hundred years hence. He also caims that he is the originator of the idea that universal education under the supervision of the national government is the only specific for anticipated race troubles. It was had enough for the judge to put forth such a tawdry patchwork of plagiarism. As the matter now stands his work promises to heap more shame upon his head than ever before fell to the lot of any one American au-

THE GREAT ELECTION.

United States Deputies. Everything points to a quiet election to-day in eorgia, though it is a very important event. It is certain that a much fuller vote will be polled in the state than was cast in the election of 1880. Then Hancock carried the state by about 40,000 majority. It is predicted that Cleveland's majority will go away

ABOVE FIFTY THOUSAND in spite of the fact that there are contests in only two congressional districts, and the state is known to be safely democratic. There are about 4,000 voters registered in this county, or less than half a full vote. Of this number not more than 1,200 are resublicans. are republicans. A democratic majority of at least 1,000 is expected from Fulton county. In counties where there has been no registration a larger per cent of a full vote will probably be cast. The republicans claim that they will give a good support to Mr. Martin, who is making the race against Colonel Hammond. He has canvassed several counties of the district and will probably not be defeated by more than 5,000 or 6,000 majority.

WHERE AND WHAT TO VOTE. Voters in Fulton county must vote in the pre voters in Fution country must vote in the pre-cinct where they are registered. No man whose name is not on the registry lists can vote. The polls in the city will be open at the court house from 7 a. m. to 6 p. m., and at the old Tallulan en-gine house on Broad street from 7 a. m. to 3 p. m. In West End and the other precincts out-ide the city polls will be open at the usual places. The fol-lowing is the form of the ticket which every dem-ocrat should vote in this district:

NO SPECIAL DEPUTIES. There will be United States supervisors, both democrats and republicans, whose duty it will be merely to see that the election is conducted in La merely to see that the election is conducted in a regular and legal form. Yesterday Marshal J. E. Bryant was asked by a Constitution man if he would appoint any special deputy marshals for today's election. He said, "I shall not. The only United States marshals who will be at the polls. will be my regular deputies. They will not be put their with any extraordinary powers. They will be instructed to do nothing at all unless they see some law regulating the election violated or have complaint presented to them in due form. Even then they will not be empowered to make summary arrests, as United States deputies usually are on such occasions. but will not be empowered to make summer arrests, as United States deputie usually are on such occasions, but they must swear out warrants and execute them in the regular way. I shall leave all the ordinary duties of preserving order at the polls to the local authorities and am confident that they will local authorities and am confident that they will be a local authorities and a local authorit see that it is properly done. The United State deputies will not be arrayed or badged. The will be few in number, quite innocent spectator of the election."

AN INQUIRY ANSWERED. The following inquiry was received by THE Con-TITUTION last night:

"Please look at section 1278, new code, also 1279, 1280 and 1281, pages 272 and 273, and see if you are not wrong in saying a voter must vote in his own precinct. "W. M. M." precinct.

"W. M. M."
In reply it may be said that the last legislature passed a law requiring the voters of Fulton county to register for the state and national elections. It is a local and not a general state law. In accordance with this law registration books were duly opened is every precinct in this county. No voter in this county who failed to register can vote for president or members of congress to-day, and every one who registered muss vote in his own precinct. This local law repeals all conflicting statutes as far as they relate to Fulton county, and voters in this county must vote in their own precinct.

Nevin opera house has been rented for Tuesday night by a committee of citizens, a darrangements have been made to receive dispatches regarding the presidential election, which will be read from the stage every few minutes. The election of Cleveland is confidently predicted. For the first time in ten years the democratic nominee for congress in this district will have no real eposition next Tuusday. Hon. Judson C. 1. 2,198,062. 2. We do not know. 3. The bill proposes to extend the right of suffrage by lowering the rent paying quali-fication of voters. The extension will make voters of about 2,000,000 persons, mainly farm la-borers. This will have the effect of wiping out the tory party.

Socialism and Communism. S. B. J., Gainesville, Ga.: Is there any difference tween socialism and communism?

The terms are used loosely, but there is a difference. Socialism does not necessarily imply communism, but is applied to any system that re quires the land and the instruments of production to be the property of communities, associations or of the government. Communism denies all judi vidual rights in property.

The Golden Fleece. Subscriber, Calhoun, Ga.: Why were the sheep folded around the "golden horn" said to bear golden fiece. Was it on account of the superior quality of the wool that it was called "Golden Fleece?"

General Wallace, minister to Turkey, explains as follows: "There were golden sands in the mountain streams of that El Dorado. Not being adept in gathering the gold dust like our New Mexican miners, the Argonants soaked their fleeces in the water, which was stirred into auriferousness and when the fleeces dried they flailed out the precious particles. "Sunset Cox in his Oriental Sunbeams," gives us an evidence of the plentitude of gold in this section in olden days, instances of mummies being found in excavating during his stay in Turkey, whose entire bodies were wrapped in sheets of gold. We accept the version of General Wallace rather than to destroy the romance of Jason and Princess Media by be-lieving Jason to be a fellow that would steal an

CAMPAIGN COMMENT.

In 1880 Michigan gave Garfield 185,190 votes Hancock, 131,800, and Weaver, 34,795. The probi bition vote was under 1,000. Garfield's majority was therefore a little over 18,000. Then the demo crats and greenbackers were quite as vitally op-noed to each other as either to the republicans, In 1882 they "fused" and electe! their candidate for governor and a majority of the members of congress. In the following spring election the fusion was again successful. The fusion is stil close in this campaign, with the addition o what laboring votes Butler's candidacy may bring

Now Mr. Sanborn, member for Michlean of the onal con mittee, admits that St. John will poll national con maitee, admits that St. John will poil 18.00 wites. The prohibition candidate for governor, Lavid Preston, is a rich banker, the most prominent lay Methodist in the state, and his candidacy has been practically indorsed by the Detroit conference. He says that, upon actual information, his vote will not fall short of 25,000. He confernly expects 40,000 and says that St. John will grivery invarily as large a vote as he. Five-sixths of it, of course, will be drawn from the republican maks.

Michigan [which it is hard to estimate but which is certainly very extensive. It is led by the most prominent German republicans in the state and by William G. Thompson, twice elected mayor of Detroit by the largest majority ever had by a candidate, and one of the "306" at Chicago. It is easily within the fact to say that Cleveland this year. This would make a change to this and Garfield's plurality is swept away.

At the least estimate of the republican cha therefore, Mr. Blaine must get nearly 4,000 demo

My wife and daughter suffered for years with a affection of the throat, which was gradually but surely undermining their health, and was asource of anxiety to all of us. Two of the best physician of the city and also a surgeon were called in, after a careful examination they decided that she was no chance for a cure unless they would consent to undergo a surgical operation. We were much opposed to the knife being used, until all other means had been exhausted. So, we began to use different throat remedies sold adrug stores. We finally got to Brewer's Lung Restore, and the effects were truly wonderful; and after a few butters had been taken they were entirely religiously the trouble and their health fully restored. If any of my family should ever be similarly ted, I would, if necessary, travel around the more of the truly excellent preparation—Brewer's Links under the line of the truly excellent preparation—Brewer's Links under the sufficiently in my family. How a Small Boy Went to the State Fair—
He Gets Lost.

Lizzie Glover, a colored woman who lives at 37
Chapel street, is mourning the disappearance of her eight year old son, who went to the Macon fair and has not returned. The first of last week, when a car load of Atlanta horses was being prepared for shipment to the fair, the boy appeared at the carand said he was going. When the train startech he got into the car, and crawling into a sack, asked one of the hostlers to the him up, which was Jone, and he went through to Macon in the bag. On the return trip he tried the bag trick again, but kept crawling out, and was finally discovered by the cenductor, who put him off the train. The negle kept getting on, however every time he was put off, and finally got as high up as Griffin. At that point he was put off and did not again board the finin. It is not known what has become of him, as has not yet turned up. His mother thinks he has skipped for New Orleans, as it is five days since he disappeared. The boy's name is Huntsey Glover.

An Ocean of Colored Citizens Congregate in

The clubs came from all directions, preceded by biass bands or drums and files. There was a good deal of whooping and yelling and no small amount of excitement as the crowd swelled and swelled in front of the stand erected at the Forsyta street deer of the custom house. The clowd rapidly increased until there were almost acres of regrees stretching up and down Forsyth and Marietta streets. From the speakers stand the spectacle was a most remarkable one—a prifect occan of yowling, howing biackness that blocked the streets. Colonel John E. Bryant called the meeting to order, and announced that Colonel Buck would preside. Colonel Buck took the chair, and introduced General Willard Warner, of Albbana, who made an interesting speech, very little of which, however, was heard by the vast multitude. Everybody seemed to want to holler, and as the general's voice was so weak he could not be heard. After General Warner's address, Judge J. J. Martiu, can idade a speech. He was followed by colonel John E. Bryant, who told the crowd that there would be a special wire in the customhouse, and the returns would be displayed there to night. There was some more speaking, and then the Electing adjourned. The indications are that the colored citizens will be out in force to-day. The third ward club took the first cake for the largest membership. It had 349.

WILL THEY PARADE?

A Rumor That Five Military Companies Will be on the Streets To-Day. During the session of the general council yester on, Captain Harry Jackson appeared lefere the body, ssking that the Gate City Guard be relieved from taxes for the paving in front of their armory on Peachtree street. The captain stated that the Gate City Guard was about the only military organization in the city that could be relied upon in case the military was needed, and added that he had been reliably informed that five colored military companies in full uniform and armed would be on the streets today. The remark caused a sensation in the council chamber, as no one knew of any reason for a military parade to-day. Later in the day a Constitution reporter obtained at police headquarters a confirmation of Captain Jackson's Satement, but Chief Connolly was not very communicative when questioned about the report. In fact he denied having heard it, but admitted that he had it is not being the constitution of the connolly was not the report. Under the effective time of the compositivation made necessary by the present constitution, treal legislation is very slow, and a great mass of local biles will be presented from all parts of the state. There are several matters of general importance which will necessitate long delates. It has been the custom since the adoption of the present constitution which limits the legislature to blennial sessions and to forty days of resolon, for the body to continue four or five weeks at its winter meeting, and then adjourn to the next summer. It has been held that use forty day limit does not apply to the afform to escalons, but only to the first or regular meetings. THE CITY COUNCIL.

AN IMPORTANT MEETING OF THE

A Meeting of the City Council, in Which Many Mat-ters of Interest Come Up—The Gray Ordi-nance on Fast Dray Driving Comes Up and Receives a Full Discussion.

The city council broke up in a row last night and the large audience present throughout the en-tire session was treated to lots of fun.

The leading feature of the session was the Gray dray ordinance. Early in the afternoon a lengthy petition, asking the repeal of this ordinance was presented and referred to the street committee. This was followed by another petition which went the same way, and then for a short while the council transacted business, but when the ordinances were being introduced, Mr. Mangum submitted one in which drays were permitted to travel at any safe gait, provided the street crossings were passed over in a walk. This was referred to the street committee oo, and then Mr. Mickleberry introduced an ordinance repealing the Gray ordinance, which was adopted.

THE SESSION IN DETAIL. The council convened at three o'clock in the afternoon and there was present a full membership, except Mr. Healy, of the aldermanic board.

The balance street exhibited a balance of the annual appropriation on hand of $322,731.52.

THE GRAY DRAY ORDINANCE.

The business men of the city presented a petition asking that the Gray dray ordinance be repealed. It was signed by W. W. Hubbert, agent of the Southern express company. "If this ordinance is enforced it will seriously interfere with the express business by delaying the forwarding of express matter from the city, and making it impossible to make prompt delivery to our numerous patrons, and will force us to discontinue delivery in residence portion of the city."

The names signed to the petition covered five pages of legal cap paper, and embraced some of the leading gentlemen of the city.

Mr. Stockdell moved to table the petition, and Mr. Gray seconded the motion.

Mr. Longley arose to express his views upon the question, but the mayor cut him short by informing him that a motion to table was not debatable. The question to table was not debatable. The volume of the control of the co

Mr. Gray then moved to reter the persons street committee.

Mr. Mecasiin asked whether or not its reference to the street committee would interfere with the operation of the ordinance. The mayor declared that it would not and that the ordinance would stand a law until repealed. Mr. Longly those moved to amend the motion to refer so as to make the ordinance a dead letter until the committee should report. His amendment was declared "off," and the motion to refer to the street committee was nearled.

The same committee introduced an ordinance relative to registration. It contemplated the establishing of a registrar in each ward and the ordinance created a lengthy discussion in which Mr. Dunning said that many clizens worked and lived at a distance from our registration offices, which are too cless together the center of the city, and indecessible to many who ought easily to have the privilege of registration, and thereby be enabled to express by their vote a choice of city officials who are to pass laws for their government, the said that the number of voters usually registered shows that fully one third of the voters in Atlanta do not register, and that one great cause of this shows that fully one third of the voters in Atlanta do not register, and that one great cause of this state of things is because the facilities heretofore effered have not kept pace with the growth of the city, or wants of citizens who cannot live near eneugh to register without too much trouble. He asserted that there are at least six thousand voters in our limits, and hardly 3,500 are ever polled, and that the city ought at once to establish registration effices with a due regard to the convenience of the poor as well as the rich, no matter what their color or condition, and that he desired to place himself on record as favoring any measure that will afflord relief. He said:

"I want to be on record as regards this ordinance. If the registration was properly done the booss

The tax committee reported "vorably upon the petition of the Gate City Gua. It to be relieved from payment of assessment for paving and sidewalks. This report seemed to electrify Mr. Gray, who sprang to his feet and exclaimed:

"What! A favorable report on that petition?"

"Yes," said Mr. Longley calmly,

"Why that building has store rooms on the ground floor which bring them quite a revenue."

"That's so." said Mr. Longley, "but the Guard is a company we are all proud of. The building was erected by subscription."

Upon the adoption of the report a motion to disagree was made and the ayes and nays were ordered and called. The ayes were Messrs. Gray, McAfee, Day, Haiman and Van Winke-5. The nays: Messrs Dunning Longley, Mickleberry, Mahoney and Cooper 5. The vote being a tie, the mayor gave his vote to the ayes and the motion to disagree was adopted, and the report thereby disagreed to.

that terrible noise."

This brought a broad grin to Mr. Gray's fac who said "you see the benefit of the Gray dra ordinance. Support it."

Mr. Haiman moved to up the question at once, and said that he was opposed to granting the requests. He declared that 'if a man wanted religion he ought to be willing to pay for it."

Mr. Mickleberry offered as a substitute for Mr. Haiman's report to take up the petition and the special committee's report, a resolution granting the exemption asked for.

The substitute was lost and Mr. Haiman's motion to take up the special committee's report, was adopted. The committee's report was adverse to the petition and the report was adopted. Some RESOLUTIONS AND ORDINANCES.

Mr. Gray made a neat speech declaring that he first voted for his ordinance because he thought it was right and that he had never changed his vote. He declared that others had changed their votes and that they did because they had been persuaded to do so.

The vote upon Mr. Mickleberry's motion to repeal Mr. Gray's dray ordinance was called. The ayes and nays were ordered and resulted: Ayes—Messrs, Dunning, Kutz, Day, Longley, Mickleberry, Haiman, Van Winkle, Cooper—8. Nayes—Mecaslin, Stockdell, Gray, McAfee, Mangum and Mahoney—6. So the ordinance to repeal was adopted and the Gray dray ordidance was killed after a brief career of three days.

Of those who voted to repeal the ordinance Messrs. Dunning, Kutz, Longley, Haiman and YanWrinkle own and operate yagons, while Messrs Day, Cooper and Micleberry do not. Of those who voted to sustain the ordinance only Mr. Mahoney owns and operates a wagon.

The scene during the final struggle over the ordinance was never presented in the city council before. Nearly every member was on the floor at one time, and the continuals sounding of the mayor say we that the ordinance would have the city's legislation attended to if he had to send the marshal and the entire police force out to arrest the absent members.

Blind Tem.

The strangely gifted boy, "Blind Tom," a profound psychological mystery, has so repeatedly visited Atlanta, and has been seen by so many of our citizens that an extended notice of him is unnecessary. In fact anything like a critical notice cannot be written, born a slave, deprived before bith of the power of vision, endowed with faculties that hover between intelligence and non-responsibility. He is yet a musical miracle, one that scientific men have been and are unable to explain. The simplest melody drops as readily and easily from the plano under the touch of his fingers, and the most difficult harmony. No piece is so simple, none so complex, but that Tom, easily rattles it off—how he accomplishes it, what his methods, he, nor no one else can explain. That his musical entertainments are eminently satisfactory cannot be questioned.

Tom begins an engagement at DeGive's opera house to night, and all who can, should avail themselves if the opportunity of hearing him. The strangely gifted boy, "Blind Tom," a pro
